No selling, no buying. Is it possible for people to live without spending any money?

Takeharu quits his job at a bank because of “MONEYPHOBIA,” a phobia of money, and moves to a deserted village in the north. There, he meets unique people such as a mayor of the village, who is excessively kind, with a secret in his past, his beautiful wife, a high school girl who is obsessed with Tokyo and an elderly man who is called "GOD" of the village. Being surrounded by these people, Takeharu's life heads to an unexpected direction. Will Takeharu be able to live without spending any money?
