Our next J-Film is 2021's highly acclaimed heartbreaking romance We Made a Beautiful Bouquet, a film adapted from a best-selling love story penned by prolific TV drama screenwriter SAKAMOTO Yuji with Tokyo 2020 as the backdrop. Directed by DOI Nobuhiro of Flying Colors (2015) and The Voice of Sin (2020).

Missing the last train of the day on Tokyo's Keio Line at Meidaimae Station, college student YAMANE Mugi (SUDA Masaki) encounters HACHIYA Kinu (ARIMURA Kasumi). Finding they have near identical tastes in music and movies, the couple quickly hit it off and embark on a whirlwind romance that has them move in together when they graduate from college.

They work temp jobs, they go for job interviews, and they even pick up a stray cat. Even when the iconic Shibuya Parco store closes and the long-running TV show SMAP×SMAP finally airs its last series finale, Mugi and Kinu try to find a way through it together. They are inseparable and spend five great years together hoping it won't end. The many seasons they spend together will remind you the world is full of love—even if change is inevitable.
